

TO HOLD OPEN SESSIONS.

ACTION OF THE COMMISSION APPOINTED TO REORGANIZE THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

MEN WHO HAVE STUDIED EDUCATIONAL METHODS TO BE INVITED TO MAKE SUGGESTIONS—A REPORT ON THE SYSTEMS.

TERMS OF OTHER CITIES.

A long step in the work of reorganizing one of the most extensive and most important departments of the city government was taken yesterday afternoon at the meeting of the School Commission, which was held at the office of Daniel McClure, No. 22 Williams-st., All the Commissioners were present except Oscar Straus. The Commissioners present appointed by Mayor Gilroy early in the summer to devise a new system of managing the public schools of the city, and yesterday's meeting was the first one held since the preliminary meeting in July. E. Ellery Anderson, the chairman of the Commission, presided, and John C. Clark acted as secretary.

It was decided to engage a hall uptown and hold open meetings two nights each week in October. At these meetings people well informed in educational matters will have ample opportunity to express their views and offer suggestions as to the reorganization of the public school system of New-York City. It was also decided to invite not only the members of the Board of Education to give their opinions in this important matter, but also the ward trustees, principals of schools and men who have made a specialty of educating children.

In November the School Commission will again hold executive sessions and formulate some new system of governing the public schools. The plan that will be sent to the Legislature will be as soon as possible so that it may be acted on by the Legislature.

The suggestion of having a paid staff of education for New-York is not practicable on the ground that it would throw the schools into politics. I have no doubt that the members of the first board would all be excellent. But in the course of time a vacancy would occur. The Mayor has now more applicants for office than he has offices. Positions worth $7,000 or $8,000 are not numerous, and heavy political pressure would be brought to bear to secure them.
